10:30 AM in the Navajo Room

Tuesday, October 4th 2011

ASIAN AND WESTERN ARTS

Senior Docent, Nancy Millman, will be taking us on a journey to the Far East to learn how their art has influenced the western world. Chinese landscapes are not painted with the same perspective as western art. The foreground is right in front of us, but the middle and background are seen as if we are in a balloon rising ever higher as we look farther into the distance

Snacks Will be provided

Hope to see you there!!
