

How To Find Information About Your Neighborhood

1. Scottsdale Police Crime Analysis

- Direct address:

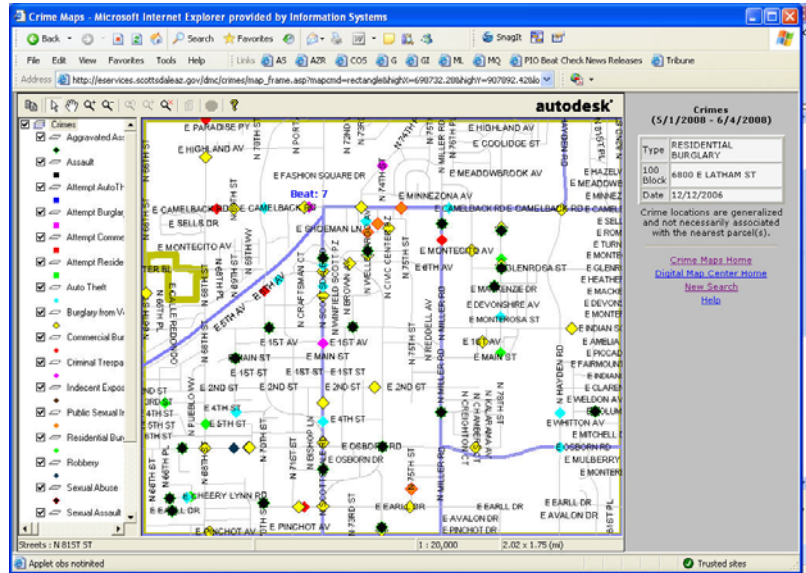

<http://eservices.scottsdaleaz.gov/dmc/crimes/default.asp>

- Indirect:

Go to www.scottsdalepd.com and select "Crime Stats"

- What does this page provide:
Property crimes and assaults for a specific time period that you choose on a map of your neighborhood.

- Note: This does not provide ALL crimes – only select crime types.

2. My Neighborhood

- Direct address:

www.scottsdaleaz.gov/projects/myneighborhood.asp

- Indirect:

Go to www.scottsdaleaz.gov and scroll down on the left side to "Quick Links" in green. The fourth tab is "My Neighborhood"

- What does this page provide?
Permits, plans, crimes, public hearings, code enforcement citations, capitol improvement projects, construction in the roadway for your neighborhood for the last 6 months.

Tip: The page defaults to "all items below" and you have to select only the ones you want to view.
