Movies of the Month

May 2 August Rush running time 114 minutes PG Starring: Freddie Highmore, Keri Russell, Robin Williams. Lyla Novacek is a brilliant cellist who has just finished performing a concert in New York City. She meets Louis Connelly an Irish guitar player. They share the love of music and end up falling in love and bonding together that night. Unfortunately, They are like two ships that pass in the night, never to see each other again, Years later while pregnant, Lyla is in a car accident and the unborn child is lost. Eleven years pass and Lyla's father is on his death bed, and he must tell her the truth that he secretly gave Lyla's baby boy up for adoption. August Rush is her child, who was born with the gift to hear music all around him. He believes that he will find his parents if they only hear his music, because they are truly bonded by their music.

May 16 The Golden Compass running time 113 minutes PG-13 Starring: Nicole Kidman, Daniel Craig & Dakota Blue Richards. Lyra Belacqua is an orphan living at Jordan College in the Oxford of an alternate universe. In Lyra's world every person is accompanied by a Daemon, a physical representation of their soul in animal form. Because she is young, Lyra's Daemon, Pantalaimon, can change his shape to appear as any animal he chooses. Lyra ventures into a perilous parallel universe to rescue her best friend and fight the forces of darkness, in this epic fantasy by director Chris Weitz's adaptation of the first installment of author Philip Pullman's best-selling fantasy trilogy.

May 23 Charlie Wilson's War running time 102 minutes R Starring: Tom Hanks, Julia Roberts, & Philip Seymour Hoffman. The remarkable story of a Texas congressman whose efforts to prevent the Red Army from overtaking Afghanistan eventually led to the collapse of the Soviet Union while simultaneously fueling the rise of radical Islam. In the early 1980s, a hastily assembled army of Afghan "freedom fighters" achieved the remarkable feat of fending off Soviet invaders despite the fact that the odds were overwhelmingly stacked against them. At the time, Texas congressman Charlie Wilson was a key member of the hugely powerful House Appropriations Committee. Illuminated to the specifics of this remarkable war by a high-profile Houston socialite, Wilson spearheaded an effort to provide hundreds of millions of dollars in weapons and training to the Mujahideen with more than a little help from brilliant but prickly CIA operative Gust Avrokotos

May 30 27 Dresses running time 111 minutes PG-13 Starring: Katherine Heigl, James Marden & Judy Greer. A single woman who has served as a bridesmaid a shocking 27 times wrestles with the prospect of supporting her sister at the altar on number 28, despite having fallen helplessly in love with her smitten sibling's handsome husband-to-be. One night, local newspaper reporter Kevin spots the devoted bridal attendant racing between receptions in Manhattan and Brooklyn, and quickly surmises that her quirky tale may be just the story to get him off the bridal beat and into the big time. Immediately suspicious of the cynical reporter's motivations, Jane butts heads with Kevin just as her younger sister Tess shows up in town. While Jane has always put the needs of friends and family before her own wants and desires, she's suddenly prompted to reevaluate her priorities when her boss -- with whom she is secretly in love -- falls for her younger sister Tess.

KNIT-WITS

The Scottsdale Shadows Knit-Wits (and Happy Hookers, too) continue their knitting and crocheting to create blankets for the young chemotherapy patients at Banner Desert Medical Center's Pediatric Oncological Unit. At the last delivery visit, the ladies carried twenty-one "labors of love" to the hospital and another visit is due very soon. Their creations are so very beautiful as well as so very practical. Some blankets are given to the siblings of the patients so that they may have a share in the treatment and love presented to them. The knitters and crocheters feel just as much warmth as the children and teens
