The Board has the right to exclude any person from the Association property, including Common Areas and Common Elements other than a record Owner and his/her immediate family members, who attempts to occupy a Unit or any portion thereof, who has not complied with the foregoing or who attempts to hold over. A copy of the Crime Free Lease Addendum, referred to in the Rule, that must be completed for every new lease and made part thereof, is attached to this letter. Additional copies of the Addendum may be obtained either from the Regime Office or the office of Registration & Records.

This rule applies to all new leases. While this Rule is designed to afford the Regime and its Council of Homeowners additional protection and rights with regard to certain conduct as described in the Rule and the Crime Free Lease Addendum, it should be noted that the foregoing is for the benefit of the Landlord, as well.

If you have any questions concerning the above, please do not hesitate to call our General Manager, Roger M. Friedman, at 480-994-2063.

PLEASE NOTE THAT ALL NEW LEASES MUST BE ACCOMPANIED BY A FULLY COMPLETED AND EXECUTED CRIME FREE LEASE ADDENDUM.

Westby shooting over drugs

By: Bob Burns, Times Reporter
October 15, 2008

A Fountain Hills man found himself ducking bullets Sunday evening as he was trying to gather information related to possible illegal activity in his neighborhood.

Sheriff's deputies were called to a residence in the 16000 block of Westby Drive shortly after 7 p.m. Sunday after receiving a report of shots fired.

A resident in the neighborhood was photographing vehicles he believed to be involved in illegal drug activity on the street when he ran from six or seven gunshots directed at him. The man retreated to a safe area near his home and called the Sheriff's Office.

Investigators recovered seven .22-caliber rifle casings and one .22-caliber bullet from a stairwell near the man's condo unit.

The car where the shots reportedly came from was traced to a Mesa address, but as of Tuesday morning the car's owner had not been located. The suspect vehicle was described as a white, four-door Oldsmobile Cutlass sedan with Arizona license ABE0593.

Jeff Cohen is the resident who was photographing the cars and reported the incident. He told The Times the shots came from the suspect vehicle and were aimed directly at him.

Cohen said he became aware of an incident where kids in the neighborhood had encountered a drug deal occurring in plain sight on the street. He said the kids were told to go away and they were not harmed, but they knew what was going on.

"I decided I was going to do something," Cohen said.

Several residents have reported that cars are frequently stopping along the street for a few minutes going into an apartment and then leaving. This behavior is generally considered an indicator of possible drug sales.

In talking with a neighbor who is a police detective in another city, Cohen decided to collect information on the vehicles stopping at the apartment in question and decided to use a camera to document the activity.

Cohen said he is taking up as a cause an effort to make the neighborhoods safe in Fountain Hills.

"The fact that someone feels safe enough to shoot six rounds from a gun at 7 p.m. in a neighborhood environment is a testament that criminals feel safe in this town," Cohen said. "Drugs and the crime they bring to a city is a major concern to every citizen in Fountain Hills. I want to be part of the solution, not the problem."

Cohen said he would be working with the Sheriff's Office to organize a Block Watch program in the neighborhood.

The owner of the building where Cohen lives has told The Times he would become involved in the Sheriff's Crime Free Multihousing program. This program allows landlords to evict without advanced notice any tenant who is arrested for various criminal activity.

The building owner said he has also talked with other landlords in the neighborhood, including the owner of the building where the alleged drug dealing is going on, and they are willing to get involved in the program as well.

Cohen said he has asked that a patrol vehicle be parked in the neighborhood to deter the activity, but that request was declined by MCSO.

Sheriff's Capt. John Kleinheinz, commander for District 7 in Fountain Hills, said he applauds the citizens' efforts, however, he urges caution.

"The flash from a camera after dark might be mistaken from the flash from a gun muzzle," Kleinheinz said. "Be a good witness, write down the description of the vehicles and license numbers. Don't put yourself in danger."

Kleinheinz said the Sheriff's Office has been looking into suspect activities in this neighborhood, but did not elaborate on what is being done at this time.
